PUBLIC NOTICE ISSUED BY THE BUSINESS REGISTRATION AND LICENSING AGENCY (“BRELA”) CONCERNING UPDATING OF ANNUAL STATUTORY FILINGS (2022)

On 4th February 2022, the Business Registrations and Licensing Agency (BRELA), published a notice calling on Directors and Secretaries of companies incorporated or registered as branches of foreign companies under the Companies Act, Cap 212, to attend to the filing of their statutory Annual Returns. In the case of branches, they are required to file their annual consolidated financial statements. The BRELA Notice can be found here: <https://www.brela.go.tz/>

Non-compliance may result in pecuniary fines in the form of late filing fees and in extreme cases, BRELA may assume that the company is not trading and may strike it off the register of companies. BRELA has also published and continues to publish list of companies showing the years pending compliance. We encourage our clients to visit the BRELA web page to inspect the published list to see if your company is on the list.

In case you require our assistance in updating your statutory filings, we shall be happy to assist.
